If I would have known how true your love was
I wouldn't have taken any chances, no
But I was a fool and I looked away
I took a step in the wrong direction

If you knew how much I love you
Then maybe you'd consider us one more time
I need to know (I need to know)
If I have a chance
To love you once, one more time
But only you

We belong together
In the shadows of the night
I'll be holding you so tight
'Till the skies above turn to morning light

And all you want to know is why I deceived you
But I didn't know what to say
If I could take all the hurt away
By saying those words you long to hear

But it's done and the memories won't go away (go away)
Of how I betrayed your faith in me
And now I see (I see)
Just how true your love was for me
And you should know

We belong together
In the shadows of the night
I'll be holding you so tight
'Till the skies above turn to morning light

Come closer baby now touch me

If you only knew how much I love you, yeah
Then maybe you'd consider us one more time
I need to know
If I have a chance
To love you once, one more time
But only you

We belong together
In the shadows of the night
I'll be holding you so tight
'Till the skies above turn

We belong together
In the shadows of the night
I'll be holding you so tight
'Till the skies above turn to morning light

Loving you is what I want
Days and nights has changed
I'll be holding you
In the shadows of the night
