You don't have to lie about where you've been.
We both know you've been schemin'.
So why don't you give your little voice a rest, climb on up inside my bed, and just pretend you need me?

You don't have to lie about what you know.
We both know that I've been sufferin'.
And I don't need to be your only one,
and I don't need your comfortin',
I just need you with me.

(chorus)(Stay, Stay, Stay with me.
Stay, stay with me.
Stay, and don't you ever run away from me.)

Oh, and if she ever let's you down,
after she has run out of your money?
Well then just crawl on back to me, I'm the one that sets you free, and I'm the one that needs you.
And if she ever let's you go,
we both know what you'll be needin'.
And if you need somewhere to rest,
somewhere to lay your head, you'll know where to find me.

(chorus)

And if you need somewhere to rest, somewhere to lay your head, you know where to find
me.

Stay with me!
(this part repeats several times)
I can't live another day,
I won't live another day without you baby!
Stay with me!

Turn down the headlights. Empty the ashtrays.
Sweep out of the airway, what's left of our time.
Oh, you can use my body to do what you have to, but stay a little longer, stay with me.
