Did you say make it rain for you?
I'll make it storm with a wind like you've never seen before
So sick I couldn't cure your sores
I built a snowman for you
And watched it melt all summer long in front of me
Endlessly, I couldn't cure your sores

What have you done for me lately?
What have you done for me lately?

Did you say move that mountain for you?
I'll spread the wings of time and watch it crumble away
today
If we could watch it together decay
And when you said enlighten me
I thought I did and now that you understand
One hand washes the other
There's nothing more to discover

What have you done for me lately?
What have you done for me lately?
