(E. Pugh)

Could you keep the door ajar
Would you not go that far
So she went in her car
You are so far away
Come to an end this day
Oh please just stay
Will you tell a story
So that you might see
You mustn't leave me
And if I could show them all
They weren't the ones to make me fall
I'm not this useless hype
I'm not the thoughtless type

If I could make them all know
I'm not their biggest foe
I read it in your eyes
Oh so many lies
I read it in your eyes
Oh so many lies
I read it in your eyes
Oh so many lies
I read it in your eyes
Oh so many lies
I read it in your eyes
Oh so many lies
