I slipped into a house
to escape my enemies, and opened a door to another world of lovers and whores but I loved you more than any of them and ever before.

Look how close I've come
how close I've come
how close I've come
how close I've come
how close I've come I'm far away.

The universe is brought back from the brink of destruction every time that you smile.
But I can see things clearer it's all smoke in the mirrors Yeah, you broke my fucking heart but I still want you

Look how close i've come
how close I've come
how close I've come
how close I've come
how close I've come I'm far away.

Look how close I've come I'm far away.

One can only guess what would happen if I got all my questions answered.
Then we'd know for sure who's got the quickest draw, who's laying dead
and who's above the law.

Look how close I've come
how close I've come
how close I've come

how close I've come I'm far away.

Look how close I've come I'm far away.
