R.J. Johnson/B. Lee
I wrote my last love song today
Got the whole damn phase out of the way
It was here now it's gone
But that was my last love song
I wrote my last love song today
I wrote my last love song tonight
Recorded my last love-starved plight
I was young and naive
I wore my heart on my sleeve
I wrote my last love song tonight
I wrote my last romantic spiel
So you'd know how I feel
You're just another girl no doubt
Who this song's not about
I wrote my last love song tonight
I used to think I was a pioneer
To love what no man has gone near
But there's no point no dignity
To sulk in self pity
So that's behind me
Just try me give me your best shot
I don't know what I am
But I know what I'm not
I wrote my last love song it stinks
At least that's what I want you to think
But it's not true there'll be more
About the cute girl next door
I'm just burned out on love for a while
I'm just burned out on love for a while
