I decided long ago the way that I would live This world might not magic, but I'll live as though it is Cos they dont know what we know and they dont know what we know so they dont go where we go cos they dont know what we know

and together, we're hellbent for heaven
and together, we're hellbent for heaven

Every time i surrender, i save a life the things thats hard to remember, is its usually mine
And they dont know what we know
And they dont know what we know
And they dont wanna go where we wanna go Cos they dont know what we know

and together, we're hellbent for heaven
and together, we're hellbent for heaven

Lets go far away from here Find out what the silence can teach We've lived for far too long where we can be too easily reached

and together, we're hellbent for heaven
and together, we're hellbent for heaven together, we're hellbent for heaven and together...
