I took a breath of fresh air
I took in the view at the top
I took a lock of her golden hair
I took a look - it was gone

If living
Is giving
I'm ready
I'm willing

I took her heart cos she let me
I took a walk in the dark
I took some time to decide if it was right

I took a walk in the dark

If living
Is giving
I'm ready
I'm willing

I took a piece of the puzzle
I took a souvenir
I took both roads everywhere they went
Now something's gotta give

And I'm willing
