As I passed the girl I could hear her say
That she's still hung over from yesterday
She shaved off his hair, she made such a fuss
It's just like the last time
I like that girl so much
When I call please answer the phone
Cause I don't have a car
To wait outside your home
I can't take the stress
Of burning the crust
My life's such a chore
I like that girl so much
This whole game's a joke you know
Oh I hope you know
The pain involved to take it slow
Come to the show
And when you hear the rock n roll
I hope you know
Why I can't take this anymore
I played all my songs
As the meter went up
And the guy looked at me
From the height of his truck
Although at the time
It seemed like a plus
She says she's so odd
I like that girl so much
When I call please answer the phone
Cause I don't have a car
To wait outside your home
I can't take the stress
Of burning the crust
My life's such a chore
I like that girl so much
This whole game's a joke you know
Oh I hope you know
The pain involved to take it slow
Come to the show
And when you hear the rock n roll
I hope you know
Why I can't take this anymore
I can't take this anymore
