So glad you're coming
I've nothing on my mind
If I could only visit
The places that you hide
It's blurred against the background
It vanishes as soon as you tell
I know this feeling
I know this feeling well
Despite these complications
There's nothing on my mind
Turn and face it properly
If you have to look behind
It's buried in the chaos
It vanishes as soon as you tell

I know this feeling
I know this feeling well
You're broken and I want it
You're broken and I want it
Asleep
Asleep
Teach me to sleepwalk
There's nothing I want more
Teach me to sleepwalk
There's nothing I want more
Teach me to sleepwalk
There's nothing I want more
I know this feeling
I know this feeling well
