I tried to tell you how I felt
I tried, I tried, I tried
Your words of wisdom weren't enough
I lied, I lied, I lied
This grass is wet and our feet are cold
You cried, you cried, you cried
And this way of life is getting old
We sighed, we sighed, we sighed
We spent a day where it is beautiful
Without a sun
I know the places you've been
But I don't know the things that you've done
And I'm trying not to be a fool
But you're always way too kind
There's things I wish I that never said
So lets leave the past behind us
You're mother speaks to you instead
That portrait was a find
Too bad they only came in pairs
That never crossed your mind
We're both just thinking too much
Keeping closed behind our own doors
I know it's hard to say when it hurts
I can't think about you anymore
