Hello my friend
It will be a while 'till I see you again
Hello my friend
Hello my friend
There's no reason to hesitate
They should have locked the door the last time I came late
Tell me a story to open my eyes
Cause the sun doesn't do that for me anymore,
Anymore, anymore
I'm home again
Completely home again
At least that's what they want
I'm lying alone in this fucking bed again
At least, at least, at least, at least
At least, at least, at least
That's what they want
Tell me a story to open my eyes
Cause the sun doesn't do that for me anymore
Anymore, anymore
The clock's on the wall
And this rock's in my hand
And they're about to meet
For the first time
And the last time
