

Cobra Skulls

"The Cobra And The Man-Whore"

Visit "The Cobra And The Man-Whore" on MotoLyrics.com

Two sins are better than one two sins are better when you want to have fun so when the preacher Theodore gets bored and wants to score he calls a man-whore Jones.

a preacher made confession today two hundred dollars was all that he paid and he said don't forget to bring that methamphetamine I want to get high when I get laid the preacher and the man-whore a methamphetamine perfume the preacher talks he's afraid of anybody gay but he loves a man-whore in a motel room

Jones went to the T.V. station when he discovered the preacher's occupation he said I'm paid to be a slave but I just can't behave because the preacher wants to take my rights away

the preacher and the man-whore
the wife and kids are safe at home and when he goes on down to Denver to mix business with pleasure the preacher, he don't sleep alone

Ted Haggard bragged about connections in the white house and promised Bush he could count on the voes of a million evangelicals

Visit Cobra Skulls page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.