Angie,
I know you,
I said you know it's true.
Please don't ask me to believe.
Baby, I got you,
'Cause I always knew
You were just having fun.
Having fun.

You got it all
And I just really gotta know (really gotta know)
What more can I say?
I just wanted to believe
That there was room for me (room for me, room for me.)

Oh, oh, oh no.
You just wanted to play.
Oh, oh, oh no.
I give you all I got.
Angie can't we just find a way?

Say no more, say no more.
Angie please don't tell me no.
And I ain't mad
'Cause you know I understand (know I understand.)
Know I understand.
Angie! Angie!

Angie,
I know you.
You know it's true.
Please don't ask me to believe.
Baby, I got you,
'Cause I always knew
You were just having fun.
Having fun.

So here's the thing:
Yeah, you know that I'm a man
Who can understand
The way it's gotta be

If you need room to breathe.

Oh, oh, oh no.
You still ask me to wait.
Oh, oh, oh no.
But I can't wait forever.
Angie, can't we make it today?

Say no more, say no more.
Angie please don't tell me no.
And I ain't mad
'Cause you know I understand (know I understand.)
Know I understand
That you're just having fun,
Having fun.

Say no more, say no more.
Angie please don't tell me no.
And I ain't mad
But you know I understand (know I understand.)
Know I understand.
Angie! Angie!

Angie! Angie!

Angie, can't we just find a way?

Say no more, say no more.
Angie, please don't say no.
Please don't ask me to believe.

Say no more, say no more.
Angie, please don't say no (please).
You were just having fun.
Having fun.

Angie,
I know you,
I said you know it's true.
Please don't ask me to believe.
Baby, I got you
'Cause I always knew
You were just having fun.
Having fun.
