A precocious kid always had to do it my way, my way
Go on tell 'em what I did
I always will admit it my way, my way, yeah
Always had my eyes set on the top
Everybody want what they never did got

I know it sounds cliché, but you know it's true:
Girl, there's no me without you

Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world to deceive them?

We've got no reason to be alone now
We got no reason to be,
What they want us to be!

I'm taking my time
'Cause I know, soon you'll be mine
That's for sure

I'll show you the way it could be
Just pay for my time, the rest is free

Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world to deceive them?

We've got no reason to be alone now
We got no reason to be,
What they want us to be!

[B.o.B.]

Yeah, I'm... falling out the sky without a parachute

Wit' ideas and beliefs that you never knew
But still readin' up, start an evolution
Though, some say that's what's the world will never do
Until then the plan is on the revenue
And politics as usual but I don't wear a suit
But even still it's what I'm compelled to do
So just read between the lines girl I'm telling you

So you gotta stick with me like Elmer's Glue
'Cause I gotta be rollin' with a soldier through the desert blue
And just know I'm in the storm resolutin'
Because if I ain't on the job the world would never move, ooh.

Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world?
The world will never do
Who'd want the world to deceive them?

We've got no reason to be alone now
We got no reason to be,
What they want us to be!

Who wants the world?
Who wants the world?
There's no world without you

Who wants the world?
Who wants the world?
There's no world without you

Who wants the world?
Who wants the world?
There's no world without you

Who wants the world?
Who wants the world?
There's no world without you

(Who'd want the world, the world will never do...)
Who wants the world
(Who'd want the world, the world will never do...)
There's no world without you
