Here we are Alone again In your arms again
And it keeps on getting better well I don't need
To read your mine 'Cause when I look in your eyes
I can almost see forever
But before you go too far Before I fall too fast
Baby you should know I need love that's gonna last
You gotta promise to be here
Through the laughter and the tears
Let me know that you're mine
Every day, every night..... 'cause
There's just no other way to love me
Take my heart, take my soul Baby never let me go
No, there's the way, it should be
If you're gonna fall in love with me
'Cause there's just no other way to love me
Let me show you How much I care And baby I swear
I'll be right there when you need me But I gonna know That you'll always be true That you're gonna see the through
And give your heart completely I wanna feel it when we kiss
Believe it when we touch Don't just say you love me
'Cause words are not enough
I wanna see it in your eyes Believe it deep inside
I gotta know you'll be here
Every day, every night ('cause)
I will never ask for more then
I'll give to you (gonna give my everything)
But I gonna know that my heart is true
Every day (every day) Every night (every night)
For the rest of your life...'cause
