Your mother died night you were born her name you never knew
look away
look away
nothing to loose

left east tennessee at fourteen wonderd to the west
look away
look away
born into death

you fought the salors in New Orleans you worked the flat boats and walked the streets hit Nachdogdes in '49 and there you saw the devil for the very first time

(chorus)
kid don;t you know me
we are the last of the true drink up drink up
drink up drink up
cause tonight your souls required of you

Signed on with a stone mad captian rode on mexico
look away
look away
war behold
jailed with killers one and all but we were killers free
look away
look away
look to me
you saw the lancers 'mid heathen hordes bloodstained viels
and costumes of war
hell aint that full boy hear me war is the game and the god we seek

(chorus)

(bridge)

we set out as men of reason armed with navy colts
look away
look away
work paid in gold

but you stood witness to yourself our trial you did betray
look away
look away
to judgement day

we killed in the dessert we killed in the streets we choose what shall and shall not be we stood with pistols fought back to back now youve stood your ground but what ground is that

(chorus)
