Ask her to dance and she'll tell you a lie Tell her she's wrong and she'll tell you you're right Sun set on this town only hours ago Though it feels like this evening moving so slow Oh no

Am I making sense Am I making sense Am I making sense Am I making sense

Well the problem with this see I don't understand You say you'll come with me but you don't take my hand The sun set on this town only hours ago Though it feels like this evening don't want to come slow

Am I making sense Am I making sense Am I making sense Am I making sense Am I making sense

Oh no
