Welcome to the afterlife
Welcome to the afterlife
(Repeat)

Sitting by the river
I think I smell some rain
Silver feathers glimmer behind the old jail
Wet snails get weather
Crawling towards perfume
The hearse is like snow morphing
Scramble by a day lit fire
I should devour pyre higher
... blazing my heart

Welcome to the afterlife lyrics
Welcome to the afterlife
(Repeat)

Afternoon anekatips times afterlife times
Twilight's best for venus fly trap
Cloudless...
Speaks the raven beak
...

Welcome to the afterlife
Welcome to the afterlife
(Repeat)
