I'm standing here
I said 'Love', you'd listen
My heart made love if you said
(He had it all)

I thought he'd known love even for
He's so mean to her
I don't wanna know

Only had he hold on to that love
He'd be alongside you so guarded

He needed all you had
He had it all
He needed all you had
He needed all you had

I've been here
Here with more than he asked you for
And I've got what you need for (Your heavy heart)
He gave me love
He'd give me
He loved you, you know

He needed all you had
He had it all

He needed all you had
He needed all you had
He needed all you had
