Blind dumb deafen offends
I was never a part of it
Blind dumb deafen offends
I was never a part of it, yea

At the bosom or the breast
Of the forehead or the fist

Blind dumb deafen offends
I was never a part of it
Blind dumb deafen offends
I was never a part of it, yea

My mouthing at you
My tongue, the stake
I should welt, should I hold you?
I should gash, should I kiss you?

Blind dumb deafen offends
I was never a part of it
Blind dumb deafen offends
I was never a part of it, yea

Blind dumb deafen offends
I was never a part of it
Blind dumb deafen offends
I was never a part of it, yea
