There's only our hair's breadth between us, obscure as we are

Obscure as we are, there's only our hair's breadth between us

There's only our hair's breadth between us, as sure as we be

As sure as we be, there's only our hair's breadth
between us

Glass sandstorms

(Still we'll not keel over, keel over, keel over)

Glass candle

(Still we'll not keel over, keel over, keel over)

Grenades are popping

(Still we'll not keel over, keel over, keel over)
