I'm glad you are a girl
I'm pleased to know you
I like you for you
I'm happy you're growing up

Rage in you won't lose me
Destroy the objective, but still sur- vur- vive
You are angry and that's okay

Forgetful or pretending
Tired, ill, or angry, or cold(?)
More assured of what to do
But I do care for you

Reject(reach and(out) you) won't lose me
Destroy the objective, but still survive
You are angry and that's okay
I am not afraid of your anger
What do you need? What do you want?
I love
(x3)
