These lyrics are a compilation of what meager lyrics are known, as well as speculation, but mostly speculation, roughly 95% speculation, I would say. They were collected together by me, Stephen Friedman (sometimes known on the net as otterley) and several friends of mine, as well as stray information and comments from those that have looked thru my lyrics voluntarily. For the most part, this was a collaboration compiled by me of three people's work. Myself, James Beswick (Ivo), and michealcb@delphi.com (whose real name I am sorry to say I have misplaced at the time I am writing this). Enjoy. Any and all comments/suggestions/ideas for changes/obvious errors, please email them to me at friedman@donald.phast.umass.edu, and they will be immediately altered in my copies of them, and when enough changes pile up, I will ask the music archives to update the lyrics. Enjoy,
Stephen Friedman (otterley)
