Kiss your curves, touch your skin,
Feel so soft, so smooth,
Let me begin to make love to you,
Candlelight, not so bright, oh so right,
To set a scene, between me and you...

I wanna be alone with you,
Not on this phone with you,
Stuck in this hotel room
I can't eat, I can't sleep, baby,
I wanna be alone with you,
Not on this line to you,
In a different time zone to you,
It's no use, I refuse to be here...

I need to show, you've got to know,
There's no escape, I'm in a state,
I can feel the walls closin' in,
If you were here, I don't think,
I would feel the same,
Coz being apart's the start of the

Emptiness that I feel...

I wanna be alone with you,
Not on this phone with you,
Stuck in this hotel room
I can't eat, I can't sleep, baby,
I wanna be alone with you,
Not on this line to you,
In a different time zone to you,
It's no use, I refuse to be here...

It's the middle of the night,
You're out of sight, but on my mind,
And I just can't get to sleep,
Coz I'm thinking about your needs,
You need me there,
I gotta take good care of you,
Yeah...
