If anyone had told me you would be my girlfriend,
And I would be your man,
There's not a chance that I'd believe it,
Cause look at who you are, and look at who I am,
But the first thing that you taught me
Is like things like that shouldn't matter,
We should look much further,
Cause you don't love what you see but what's inside,
uh-oh,
And when I reached inside to feel your love,
I could not believe how much there was,
And so I had to give to you
The rest of me to match your love...
And so...

I guess I'm lost in you, can't stop loving you,
Just believe it, you know I mean it,
Loved you from the start, owner of my heart,
Guess I'm lost in you, guess i, guess i...

If this is just a dream,
Then leave me alone, let me sleep,
Don't disturb me, please no,
I wanna stay right here forever,
Where love can't be denied,
Cos you're right here by my side,
Each time I reach inside to feel your love,
I believe in what I touch,
And I give to you the rest of me and match your love,
And so...

I guess I'm lost in you, can't stop loving you,
Just believe it, you know I mean it,
Loved you from the start, owner of my heart,
Guess I'm lost in you, guess i, guess i...
