When I'm with you,
Something bout you is telling me,
You're not loving me anymore,
And when I'm near you,
And holding you close,
You don't look at me like before,
Just tell me what it is,
I know there's something weighing on your mind,
I can see it in your eyes,
I've got a premonition that I might break down and cry
Though it seemed so right,
I guess I'll have to kiss our love goodnight...

Where's the girl I used to know?
Tell me where did she go?
Cos I can't stop myself from thinking,
Bout the things that I'm missing,
So do you know?
I need to know what happened
To the girl I used to know...

You've no idea how many tears
I've cried since you've been gone,
But now I've found how to get by,
I won't cry those tears no more,
I've heard it all before,
So sorry's not I wanna hear no more,
I though I knew you so well,

Seems lately that you're someone else,
Though it seemed so right,
Now I know I had to say goodbye...

Where's the girl I used to know?
Tell me where did she go?
Cos I can't stop myself from thinking,
Bout the things that I'm missing,
So do you know?
I need to know what happened
To the girl I used to know...

If only you hadn't turned around,

You would still be right here right now,
But then again, what's done is done,
Life still goes on,
Everything happens for a reason...

Where's the girl I used to know?
Tell me where did she go?
Cos I can't stop myself from thinking,
Bout the things that I'm missing,
So do you know?
I need to know what happened
To the girl I used to know...
