"light. can you hear me?
can you feel me? ohhhh.....
hey. lalaa.... oooo oh....

i am sitting in the sun i can feel the power of a new dawn in my mind everythng is bright love is all you love as well like a precious flower i'm a spirit floating bound in the universe

light. shining in your eyes everyday, wash away the pain light, coming from my mind we are one. the night has just begun.

people walking through my world i can see our (breathing) they are phrases, they are words of a simple verse put your gunmen on the ground don't you hurt each other let your spirit hear the sound
in the universe

everyday, to wash away the pain
we are one, life has just begun life has just begun. we are one life has just begun

oh yeah, ohohno...

come on baby.

light is just a constant light is just a color light. it is you because life is just a constant light is the all color light. is you
