I know I broke your heart again
But let me assure you
I can repair most of the harm
I know it takes some time to you
The last words I bruised to you
Said I, I promised we'd be half

Just don't forget us
We're just worth too much
I've made that mistake once
And I know at least
You're the one for me
You are the one I lost

And I can recolor the times
We found then I've made up my mind
Because I only wanted you to smile
And when you said "I love you more"
And I said "nothing my heart will sore at one
To take it all back"

Just don't forget us
We're just worth too much
I've made that mistake once
And I know at least
You're the one for me
You are the one I lost

So what did you say?
We forget because
I'm starting to feel weak
And I won't make it without you
Right now I know I'm in your way
And you are leaving town Thursday
Just listen to this song while you're away

And don't forget us
We're just worth too much
I've made that mistake once
And I know at least
You're the one for me
I know now you're the one for me
