In our sleep there's more to this nightmare
Will she beg for your mercy
Slowly but sure, i'm hoping what comes and in the absence of love
At night she'll kick and she'll fight should they fill in his sight
At night, i'll worry from all, the end of us all

Please mom, they're coming for me
Please mom, run lock your door
They're coming for me

When the clock reads 21:13
All work will stop
And the ground will relieve

Please mom they're coming for me
Please mom, run lock your door
They're are coming for

When i fall asleep
Your face is all i see
Dear mamma i love
I fall asleep
Your face is all i dream
Dear mamma i love

Ooooooooooooooh
In your frame your be this well
In the face you miss the most
You'll see them soon... stop
I bid you fair warning stay up til you
When the memories occur
Of a life you haven't lived
Stay still you will
I've got a secret to hide
And i've got a secret to hide

In the words of father to son
Thy kingdom come

Whoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoa

Please mom, they're coming for me
Please mom, run lock your door
They're coming for

When i fall asleep
Your face is all i see
Dear momma i love
When i fall asleep
Your face is all i dream
Dear momma i love

Whoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoa
When i fall asleep
Whoa whoa whoa
Whoa whoa whoa
When i fall asleep

The days we lost our dignity
The eager dare to stand
The ride home through victory
On the innocent they tread

But IRO-bot will never die
IRO-bot will never
