Desperate eyes make a desperate soul
Leave me with nothing here on my own
Simple distraction now tears you away
Searching for nothing here on your own
I'm waiting for something to cover these wounds
I'm waiting for closure here in this place
Simple distraction now tears you away

But I am not leaving here
'Cause I'm dying here
You run away
Though it's dark inside
I'm alone in here

Played with your heart not with your mind
Stay for a memory we'll be alright
Played with your heart not with your mind
Stay for this memory

Desperate eyes make a desperate soul
Leave me with nothing here on my own
Simple distraction has torn you away
Searching for nothing here on your own
I'm waiting for something to cover these wounds
I'm waiting for closure here in this place
Simple distraction now tears you away

But I am not leaving here
'Cause I've died inside
You run away
But it's dark inside
I'm alone in here

Played with your heart not with your mind
Stay for a memory we'll be alright
Played with your heart not with your mind
Stay for this memory
