These are the words from my Carol Ann,
The girl I broke in half.

Oh I'm afraid there's nothing left,
No pieces to put back in place.

I was a monster,
The things that I did I regret, I dismiss,

Oh, It's a shame about Carol Ann,
And all she could have been.

She soared with such grace,
As her body sailed through the windshield,
From the passenger seat.

I was a monster,
Through regret I replaced her love for these lonely
days

Oh, she'll be forgotten
Oh, she'll be forgotten

Young hearts beat on
To a love that everybody wants.
But we can't have it all,
So we take what little we can.

Oh, mother did ya see em comin'?
Did ya see em mother,
Did ya see em sneakin' through the back door?

Stealing the time we wish we spent,
But lost it all

Oh oh ooh,
Oh oh ooh,

The Time we wish we spent,
But lost it all

Oh oh ooh,

Oh oh ooh,

The Time we wish we spent,
But lost it all.

Mother did ya see em comin'?
Did ya see em mother,
Did ya see em sneakin' through the back door?
This time we'll reinforce the walls!

Don't turn the page, love.
It's words don't hold your fate.
This soon will become one
And from their world you will escape.

Through the walls of your heart,
I will tear you apart!
Through the walls of your heart,
I will tear you apart!

Through the walls!
Through the walls!
Through the walls!

Through the walls!
Through the walls!
Through the walls!
Through the walls!
