Elf Power, New Mexico
Elf Power, New Mexico

Thank God, you're still, angry at me.
I've got, a better chance seeing you dead, and buried,
yeah
Thank you, for this, one last, big mistake...

It's your turn, come shoot for it...
If you win, well you can lead the way.
Yeah!

Mid-days are grey, into New Jersey. Hey!
Did you, think maybe I, was doing quite well without
you, in the frame?

"Staile, killed in defense."
(Staile, oh wo oh)
I can't believe I told you right after,
"I've given you up, go on find someone new."
Till then pretend, you've touched me for your last,
(woah-ho)
I've given you up, go on find someone new.

Dear Nikki, what, (Dear Nikki, what)
What if I could have found a better-half here, in you?
I merely came here and...

Elf Power, New Mexico
Elf Tower, New Mexico

Stay here, in our last standing hourglass, circumstance
Devoted here, in the midst of weary eyes
Lost and buried here, in your big surprise, again.

Will your fingers find my bag?
Familiar?
I fit in the question I had to ask.
Did you, think maybe I, was doing quite well, without
you, in the frame?

"Staile, killed in defense."

(Staile, oh wo oh)
I can't believe I told you right after,
"I've given you up, go on find someone new."
Till then pretend, you've touched me for your last,
(woah-ho)
I've given you up, go on find someone new.

Dear Nikki, what, (Dear Nikki, what)
What if I could have found a better-half here, in you?
I merely came here and...

Elf Power, New Mexico

(Smile, tomorrow, you are home.)

I'll give my my words in one lesson.

Dear God,
Before I heard, this is your intention, for I
I could've figured out, over and over.

"See there's Coheed, and then Cambria in innocent merger."
"Absence makes the heart grow fonder."

Thank God they recovered your body in New Mexico.
Three days.
I'm spoiled.
I miss you in everyway.
You could have been dear, I wish you were here, still in the frame.

"Staile, killed in defense."
I can't believe I told you right after,
"I've given you up, go on find someone new."
Till then pretend, you've touched me for your last,
(woah-ho)
I've given you up, go on find someone new.

Dear Nikki, what,
What if I could have found a better-half here, in you?
I merely came here and...
