This sinking warmth through obscurity
Between the sweet inbetween where and what you're doing
There is a view of an uncharted place
Where you're the brunt of a joke and everyone's laughing

I am not who I seem
Who you thought I should be
The support your can lean
Up against when you need

I'm the dark when you want
The lights out at all costs
This is mine, that is your's
I'm the bricks in your wall

Goodbye forever, my darling, whether
I was everything you thought I'd be, or not
I was a bad man, ooh,
To stop you, girl, from loving me, oh oh

A yearning loss to silence me
This struggle breaks the black and white
Calling, transmitting
The echo breaks electric air
Her pulse, it stretches from never to everywhere

And from the other side she'll save me
Her courage, strength, and heart, beyond
I wish she'd stay mine,
But her place is in some other time

Bodies separating, ascend and release
This tragedy's all my fault
Reaching desperately to salvage anything
This tragedy's all my fault

This hurt won't go away

And from the other side she'll save me
Her courage, strength, and heart, beyond

I wish she'd stay mine,
But her place is in some other time

Goodbye forever, my darling, whether
I was everything you thought I'd be, or not
I was a bad man, ooh,
To stop you, girl, from loving me, oh oh

Goodbye forever, goodbye forever
(You won't be forgotten)
