Each night I wish to God
He'd let her rest
This hurts me more
Than any man could bear

She's my angel
From the west
There will never be a one
To take her place

When you go, I will know
Follow you to the stars
And when the world burns apart
There will be a place for your car

I'd give you everything
If only I'd have known you'd take it
But you don't 'cause you're you
It's why I'll always love you
My pearl of the stars

The pill she takes
The pain with which she drowns
Our baby sleeps next door
She's made it down

I'll tell her
How wonderful you were
I'll remember
Everything you were to me

When you go, I will know
Follow you to the stars
And when the world burns apart
There will be a place for your car

I'd give you everything
If only I'd have known you'd take it
But you don't 'cause you're you
It's why I'll always love you
My pearl of the stars

When you go, I will know
Follow you to the stars
And when the world burns apart
There will be a place for your car

I'd give you everything
If only I'd have known you'd take it
But you don't 'cause you're you
It's why I'll always love you

When you go, I will know
Follow you to the stars
And when the world burns apart
There will be a place for your car

I'd give you everything
If only I'd have known you'd take it
But you don't 'cause you're you
It's why I'll always love you
