These Foolish Things (Remind Me Of You)

Tony Bennett

Words by Holt Marvell

Music by Jack Strachey and Harry Link

This version did not chart but

In 1936, five versions did: Benny Goodman (# 1),

Teddy Wilson with Billie Holiday (# 5), Nat

Brandywynne (# 6), Carroll Gibbons (# 8), and Joe

Sanders (# 17)

Then in 1947 Red Ingles, who perfected his novelty vocals with Spike Jones, charted a humorous version, "Them Durn Fool Things" at # 26.

A cigarette that bears a lipstick's traces

An airline ticket to romantic places

And still my heart has wings

These foolish things remind me of you

A tinkling piano in the next apartment

Those stumblin' words that told you what my heart meant

A fairground's faded swings

These foolish things remind me of you

You came, you saw, you conquered me

When you did that to me

I knew somehow that this had to be

The winds of March that make my heart a dancer

A telephone that rings but who's to answer?

Oh, how the ghost of you clings

These foolish things remind me of you

How strange, how sweet, to find you still

These things are dear to me

They seem to bring you near to me

The sigh of midnight trains in empty stations

Silk stockings thrown aside, dance invitations

These foolish things remind me of you

Other Version

These Foolish Things
Benny Goodman
(Marvell/Strachey/Link)
(Brian Ferry, 1973)

oh will you never let me be oh will you never set me free the ties that bound us are still around us there's no escape that I can see and still those little things remain that bring me happiness or pain

these foolish things
remind me of you

a tinkling piano in the next apartment those stumbling words that told you what my heart
a fairgrounds painted swings
these foolish things
remind me of you

you came you saw you conquered me when you did that to me I somehow knew that this had to be

a telephone that rings but who's to answer
these foolish things
remind me of you

gardenia perfume lingering on a pillow wild strawberries only 7 francs a kilo
and still my heart has wings
these foolish things
remind me of you

I know that this was bound to be these things have haunted me for you=B9ve entirely enchanted me

silk stockings thrown aside and sin-vitations
oh how the ghost of you clings
these foolish things
remind me of you

the smile of Garbo and the scent of roses the waiters whistling as the last bar closes the song that Crosby sings
these foolish things
remind me of you

how strange
how sweet to find you still these things are dear to me that seem to bring you so near to me

the scent of smoking leaves the wail of steamers two lovers on the street who walk like dreamers
these foolish things
remind me of you
just you...
