Coko
"Triflin Featuring Eve"

Eve's rap:

I explain that you walked through Stopped in my tacks like daddy what i need But i'ma lplay it back gotta a whole lotta chicks wanna say they touched your stacks and i see you playing Santa Clause gotta 'em on your lap but they giving you whatever you want not me though Stal-lion ride ruff plus i'm trying to see though enough to make 'em scream Coko like Cain what you need challenge make it better let me see if you can handle Eve

Coko 1:

Sexy, tentive, caught my attention knew he had me in a daze oh oh oh his eyes they tease me enchanting the way he stopped and stared me in the face oh oh oh oh

the same ol' line that i already heard disappointed me right away by the the -things- he - had- to -say were just trifling

chorus:

Triflin ghetto, sorry oh no tired, game is , that's a ashame trifling, ghetto, sorry, ohno fine as hell though, that's so pitiful

Coko 2:

oh his lips intising so inviting smile could melt your heart away oh oh i start to imagine just what could happen if he should come and talk to me

the things he had to say were were just trifling

ohhhhhhhhhh i like what i see oooooooooh shorty come and talk to me oooooooooh he spoke his first word (i can't believe) i can't believe the sht i heard

Eve's rap:

What you mean you wanna touch at my house ya'll never see me bend over my couch think i'm a chicken watch me thug it out 'matter of fact i'm gone forget that i meet you now why you gone make me get ghetto and disrespect you had to be a clown and i'ma laugh at you silly a pass at your petty cash shouldn't thought i was weak can't believe you had the nerve to speak playa you know who i am you musta thought i was some type of freak chorus out
