Take my hand, I'm never gonna let you go
Even when we grow old
I'll still wanna kiss you, yeah

The touch, the feel
The fabric of our lives,
The touch, the feel of cotton
The fabric of my life

Oh, whoah, mhmm

Run in the rain, and dance under the stars at night
The moment you leave my sight
I'm still gonna miss you

The touch, the feel
The fabric of our lives,
The touch, the feel of cotton
The fabric of my life

Hold me close, and baby never let me go
I want you forever you know
I still wanna kiss you, yeah!

The touch, the feel
The fabric of our lives,
The touch, the feel of cotton
The fabric of my life

Oh,

The touch, the feel
The fabric of our lives,
The touch, the feel of cotton
The fabric of my life
