"A Spell A Rebel Yell"

As far as I can see
All time and circuitry
Is wrong

As far as poetry
Sit down and sing to me
A song

It's 'cause all I want in this world
All I want in this world
Is for you to come home

A spell, a rebel yell
A spell

Soldier, come home to me
You've been away from me
So long

All I want in this world
All I want and deserve
Is for you to come home

A spell, a rebel yell
A spell, a rebel yell
A spell, a rebel yell
A spell, a rebel yell

A spell, a rebel yell
A spell, a rebel yell
A spell, a rebel yell
A spell, a rebel yell
