At night they would go walking till the breaking of the day
The morning is for sleeping
Through the dark streets they go searching to see God in their own way
Save the night time for your weeping, your weeping

Singing la la la, la la la eh
And the night over London, hey

So we rode down to the river where the toiling ghosts spring
For the curses to be broken We go underneath the arches where the witches are in the saying

There are ghost towns in the ocean, the ocean

Singing la la la, la la la eh
And the night over London, hey

God is in the houses and God is in my head
And all the cemeteries in London I see God come in my garden but I don't know what He said
For my heart it wasn't open, not open

Singing la la la, la la la eh
And the night over London, hey
Singing la la la, la la la eh
There's no light over London today
