Are you missing something?

Looking for something?

Tired of everything

MotoLyrics

Searching and struggling

Are you worried about it?

Do you wanna talk about it?

Oh You're gonna get it right some time

Theres so much to be scared of

And not much to make sense of

Are you running in a circle?

You can't be too careful

And you can't relate it

'Cos it's complicated

Oh You're gonna get it right some time

You're gonna get it right some time

It's how you see the world

How many times can you see?

You can't believe what you learn

It's how you see the world

Don't you worry yourself

Your not gonna get hurt

Oooohhhhh...

Is there something missing?

There's nobody listening

Are you scared of what you don't know?

Dont wanna end up on your own?

You need conversation

And information

Ohhhhhhhhh...

Gonna get it right sometimes

You just wanna get it right sometimes

It's how you see the world

How many times have you heard?

You can't believe a word

It's how you see the world

Don't you worry yourself

'Cos nobody can learn

Oooooh

Oooooh

Oooooooh

That's how you see the world

That's how you see the world
