Where is my boy?
I saw you come out of a scene
Maybe in some kind of dream
Something that never comes.
Time that I take
See over in arms I raise
All racing to find you
All racing to find you.

Time stands
I open your house to my world
I see you come out of it all
Unharmd and unscathed and shouting.

Come over here
And the houses i live in
And changes you're making
To the state of affairs.

Calling where is my boy?
I have seen you so often
I cry where is my boy
Or have you all forgotten?
And in some kind of dream
Have I seen you before?
Have I seen you before?
Where is my boy?

So come all the waves
Changing your number
Changing the house where you live
Change your lines.

Have I seen you before
In some kind of a dream?
In a place you've forgotten
A place I've forgotten.

So where is my boy?
Have I seen you before in some kind of a dream?
Have I seen you before?

Where is my boy?
I say where was my head when i needed it most?
Oh I stayed here before
Yes I'll stay in the place I know.
