I slipped away last night
Took me away from sight and the place i know

All crushed upon my skin
This mess i put you in and the punch i threw

It was a strange reaction for someone like you to remain on side

And in a chain reaction
I was down and calling for a place to hide

I saw a broken arm
Machines will all break down in a way i know

It was a strange reaction
for someone like you to remain so sure

And in a chain reaction
I dissolve and break and then away i crawl

...and then away i crawl[x4]
