Dear Father I've got your photographs,
thank god for photographs , hip hip horray dear Father I know you love to laugh though most of your photographs didn't seem that way Dear Father Can't let you go to sleep, An I still can't forget you walkin around.
Dear Father you're starring in my dreams you're stealing all the scenes, where did you go?
My wandering mind, I stumble through time, I sing
through the air,
I'll look for you there,
Dear Father I never got to say goodbye, I was singin on the River Clyde, and I didn't know, Dear Father I see you dancing still and i think i always will till the day I die Dear Father I feel your healing hands, as I fall asleep i can, plain as the day.
Dear Father you're in my refection now as I reach out and touch you now " where did you go?
Dear Father I'm still curious when you still make me furious it was so long ago.
Dear Father I've got your photographs,
thank god for photographs , hip hip horray
