What you don't like to think about
Is what you probably should forget
You can't take it with you where you go
Get out while you can
Try to clear your head
Go where the goings good
You been where the goings been
If it don't feel like it should
Go where the goings good
Hold those tickets in your hand
There's keys in the car for you when you land
If I don't hear from you again
Ill know you grabbed the reins
And listened to what I said
Go where the going is good
You been where the goings been
If it don't feel like it should
Go where the going is good
You could waste all of your life
Waiting for your time to come around
But you know it don't seem right
To sit around and lose the happiness youve found
Go where the going is good
You been where the goings been
If it don't feel like it should
Go where the going is good
