Did someone call my name?
Like a distant drum,
it's beating
Or is it just another dream of long ago?
I dance again
I am spinning
In the life I am living
And I can feel the power rushing through my veins

Once upon a time
I could do no wrong
Though the candle flickers
the flame is never gone
And to my brilliant feat
They all pay heed
I hear the crowds roar
Oh, so loudly

Is it a game of chance or merely circumstances
A jack to a king and back
Then you have to pay to play
The world it won't wait for you
It's got some things to do
The sun's got to rise and drive another night away, and as I listen to the silence
I can hear thunder in the distance

And to my brilliant feat
They all pay heed
I hear the crowds roar
Oh, so loudly

And to my brilliant feat
I make grown men weep
And still my eyes grow
Oh, so cloudy

Heeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee-yah
