(Diana...Diana...Diana...Diana...)

I can't forget the times we shared
My body, my mind, my soul won't let go
Of the way you showed you cared

Who could've blamed me
How was I to know
That I'd hold you close and never let you go?
Feelings overflow, and I know I'd find my way back to

Diana
I have been wanting you so long
A love like this it can't be wrong
Diana, I need you more and more
This love will last forever more
Diana
I have been wanting you so long
This kind of love it can't be wrong
Diana, I need you more and more
This love will last forever more (Diana....)

I spend day and night just thinking of you
And leaving without your love is the hardest thing
I've ever had to do

I can't seem to forget all the memories
Pictures of your face keep haunting me
I've found love the way it's supposed to be
When I held you in my arms

Diana
I have been wanting you so long
This kind of love it can't be wrong
Diana, I need you more and more
This love will last forever more
Diana
I have been wanting you so long
This kind of love it can't be wrong
Diana, I need you more and more
This love will last forever more

(Diana....Diana...Diana....Diana...Diana)

I have been wanting you so long
This kind of love it can't be wrong
Diana, I need you more and more
This love will last forever more(Diana...)
I have been wanting you so long
This kind of love it can't be wrong
Diana, I need you more and more
This love will last forever more
