troubled young lady comes in from the rain helpless and hiding from some kind of pain she don't know the reason for the way that she feels she don't know the truth but she knows that it's real so she throws down her cards and asks God to redeal once more.

Chorus:

one step forward and two steps back she might be strange but she has a knack she'll lift her arms up to the sky and say " oh my god, don't you let him say good-bye!"

troubled young man comes walking this way and hes walking real tall like this is his day!
and his boots make him strong, well that's what he thinks

but he can't dissappear in the whiskey he drinks and the harder he asks and the deeper he seeks

Chorus:

one step forward and two steps back he might be strange but he has a knack he'll lift his arms up to the sky and say
"oh my god don't you let her say good-bye!"

Oh my love x 4

Chorus:

one step forward and two steps back i might be strange but i have a knack hold my arms up to the sky and say
"OH MY GOD IT'S ALRIGHT IF SHE SAYS GOOD- BYE!!!"
