I want a kiss across my painted lips
Before you throw me to the floor
I want to justify myself a little bit
Before I'm walking out the door
For good

Chorus
Oh what a miracle
I'm still standing here
Oh what a miracle
Wish I didn't care
So much

My brain is liquid like your lemonade
Big jellyfish behind my eyes
My head is loaded with the crab
From yesterdays
I am in permanent disguise

Chorus

I am an ugly girl
I've got a stupid face
You always know what's right
And wrong

I don't regret the words..express yourself
It's just a scar across my chin
But I've still got my crooked teeth and
Greenish eyes
I need a place where I fit in

Chorus
