Blue painted rose
In the waterline
Drifting away to the sea
Soaked with with a tear
And a salty kiss
Touch me I'm aching to be

In your dreams if I may
Be a bright summer day
Where the water is deep
Memories sleep

Chorus
Under my skin
Over my head
Under my nose
Roses are red
How can I loose my self for a moment
Carried away by a bluebird song
Under my skin

Somebody distant
Got fat too close
Something I wanted to see
How can I leave this love for dead
Touch me I'm aching to be

In your arms if I may
Be your bride for a day
Where the water is deep
Memories sleep

Chorus Repeat

Do do do doÂ....

Chorus Repeat
